Subject: Chemours and Branham Meeting

Dear Robert,

I trust you're doing well. I'm out of the office with very limited email service so you may be receiving this message twice, as I thought it went out yesterday.

We have been able to coordinate October 30 after 2pm to meet with you and your team. Hopefully that will work for you. The following will be attending: Eddie Johnston, Gregg Martin, Chemours, Steve Mingis, Branham Corp. Mike Walls and I will also be attending.

Also, we will be bringing in a gasket, maybe two for you and your team to examine. It will of course be properly packaged but want to make sure that won't cause any issues.

I've included LeaAnne in this message should you have any questions and I'm not able to respond.

Thanks again for your patience and have a great weekend,

Judith
